PERPLEXITY AT LATONIA.

BOOKMAKING CAUSES REVOCATION OF CLUB'S LICENSE AND BRINGS SUSPENSE.

The Club Preparing to Contest the Kentucky Racing Commission's Action Through the Courts at Once.

Cincinnati, O., October 20.—Horsemen, who had as a result of the State Racing Commission's inactivity on the opening day, lulled themselves into the belief that everything would go on smoothly for the remainder of the meeting, were rudely disillusioned when word was received here in the afternoon that the license of the Latonia Jockey Club had been revoked as a result of its failure to comply with the State Racing Commission's ruling that it must use only the mutuel and auction pool systems of betting. The announcement of the revocation of the license came in the form of a telegram from President Harvey Myers, who appeared before the commission in Lexington this afternoon to plead the Latenia Jockey Club's cause. The message was to acting manager John Hachmeister. It also instructed that no action be taken in the matter until concrew.

Mr. Hachmeister, when seen regarding the com-uission's action, said:

structed that no action be taken in the matter until temorrow.

Mr. Hachmeister, when seen regarding the commission's action, said:

"I am extremely sorry that they have forced us to fight and we will take the necessary steps to protect the interests of the track. The commission's action in revoking our license is subject to review by the courts and we have several other avenues by which the commission's right to revoke our livense, or dictale the style of betting to be in use, can be tested. Meanwhile, we are going right ahead with our meeting and it is positive that the racing will go on tomorrow."

A meeting of the board of directors will be held tonight on the arrival of Harvey Myers, when the mode of procedure in an effort to restrain the State Racing Commission from interfering with the racing here will be decided on. It is thought that an injunction against the commission will be secured if an attempt is made by it to prevent the racing.

All the horsemen expressed themselves freely-against the racing commission for its action in revoking the Latonia Jockey Club's license. The one-held most to blame for the middle was Milton Young. One owner facetionsly remarked, when informed of the racing commission's action: "Young must be trying to prevent horsemen from procuring carfare to attend the sale of his horses."

Whatever the outcome of the fight in the courts, is patent at present that the horsemen are with the Latonia management. It had been the intention of the Latonia officials do meet the racing commission half way and install several of the mutuel machines for the accommodation of those who prefet this style of speculation, and an order for their shipment here had been forwarded to Louisville so that they could be put in use tomorrow, but after the amountement that the commission had declared the club's license revoked the order for the mutuels was countermanded, and it is milkely that the machines will again be in operation here.

But for the amoleasantness attending the news to-day's racing would ha tinished with a rush that almost sent her by the finish in advance. Lens was close up but beaten all the way.

A heavy mist began enveloping the track shortly after this race and colors could only be discerned with difficulty in the succeeding races. The running of the closing race could only be seen in spots. The nile purse went to Lady Esther, a strongly supported choice over Zienap and Terah. The latter was roughly used by Zienap in the stretch drive which accounted for his failure to land second place. Marathon, another short-priced favorite, was much the best in the last race and made slow of his supponents. E. Martin, his rider also work that he was in danger of being nulled out of the saddle, as he was standing straight in the stirrups to prevent the horse winning off. Barrida bos showed as mart performance by finishing second.

The opener brought together a poor band of two-year-olds and the large field caused considerable crowding, the choices suffering most by the interference, which accounted for Ornamosa's easy victory. Splendida, in a sharp drive, taking second place from Malecon.

All Red was lacky in having a clear course in the second race, and this enabled him to land the purse in advance of the roughly used Home Run, which was much the best but could not overcome repeated interference.

left at the post, and his booming up as a contender midway of the stretch and subsequent sensational victory made every boy. Standague with the surprise. The Squire was the first and gue with the middle running and when he in turn relinquished the middle running and when he in turn relinquished the lead to Arasee, many of the spectators concluded that it was all over but the shouting. They had, however, no sooner settled themselves down to witness an easily achieved victory than along came Spooner like a thunderholt out of a clear sky and had the race won before a realization of the winner's identity had dawned upon them, Indeed, the Emery gelding tired so badly that Gowan was pressing him closely for second place. This beautiful filly had a rough and difficult journey and displayer an ossition as she did. Experts incline to the belief that Gowan is practically invincible at present as a stayer and that there is no horse in training, excepting Master Robert, that can exercise her at a mile and over.

Proceedings began with the decision of a six furlougs selling dash. Burgher vanquished the eleven fast ones opposed to him with such ridiculous ease that many of the horsemen present began to look the winner over with suddenly awakened interest. It is generally believed that Rurgher does not belong in the company he found himself today, but is in reality a horse of near stake caliber, masquerading as spellbound, the full-brother to the famous Mesmerist, has a way of bobbing up unexpectedly. It seemed that he had worked exceptionally well for the particular race he was started in on this occasion, hence the persistent support accorded him. Ural rode Spellbound to victory like a comer.

Had Beauclere been favored equally with Saylor at the start of the third selling race. Tully Coulter's unlucky gelding would not have been compelled to play second fiddle to the slightly preferred one of the two in the betting. After Sweet had been caught numbry with Beanclere at the start, the latter closed a gap of fifteen lengths a

Lee could not be located when wanted immediately after the race.

J. H. McCormick denies positively that Fair Play had an attack of the strangles while being cooled after his memorable defeat in the Belmont Park Autumn Weight-for-Age Race.

James R. Keene was an interested spectator of a remarkable trial at Sheepshead Bay on Sunday. A vearling chestnut filly by Ornus—Balsam Fir. by Friar's Balsam, worked a quarter in 22½ seconds. Mr. Keene's Voter was sired by Friar's Balsam, and on account of the filly's breeding he said he was anxious to acquire her.

Jockey Joe Notter said at Yonkers today that he intended to ride at New Orleans this winter.

Winner—B, g, by Hamburg—Hurly Burly (trained by H. C. Riddle).

Went to post at 2:12. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. Burgher drew out quickly, spreadeagled the others, won unextended and is a probable good one. Woodlane ran in forward pursuit from the start, dropped back in the stretch and came again resolutely at the end. Tileing was unexpectedly prominent throughout and is extra good. Saracinesca, away very badly, closed an immense gap in a cracking effort. Black Mary, from a flatfooted start and repeatedly pulled up, made up ground rapidly in the stretch. Rockstone, from a flatfooted start and inadequately ridden, steadily improved his position in the last half. Select finished close up. Heknows quit badly. Sanguine is out of place in sprints. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Scratched—77205 Belle Strome, 106; 740704 Revane, 105.

Went to post at 2:41. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Spellbound soon gained and held a slight lead and outstayed all stretch challenges in a long and hard closing drive. Summer Night was a prominent contender throughout and just failed to get up in a fast stretch rush. Jeanette M. closed an early gao and loomed up menacingly, midway of the stretch, but tired in the final strides, Grania, away badly, closed a big gap and was a fast going fourth. Prosper was well up at the end. Erbet set the early—pace, but thred baddy in the last quarter and was short. Garland, for $500; no bid.

Spooner, nearly left, closed up steadily and persistently on the extreme outside and drew out decisively midway of the stretch. Arasee, away badly and excessively urged to overhaul the pacemaker, drew out like the winner in the stretch, but itred finally. Gowan, outpaced from a slow start, closed an immense gap in a great stretch rush and is in grand form. Notasulga, shuffled back early, steadily improved her position in the last half into a fast going fourth. Question Mark drew out in the first quarter and led under a pull to the stretch, then tired and was palpably short. The Squire, from a flying start, led for the first quarter and was then steadily shuffled back and dropped to the rear quickly on the turn. King Cobalt seemed unable to raise a respectable gallop.

ADAM BRINGS BIG PRICE IN FRANCE.

New York, October 20.—Adam, the Flying Fox stallion, and a number of broodmares, the property of the Millstream Stud sent to France from this country recently, were sold at Paris today. Adam brought $58,000 and the mares, all in foal to Adam, averaged $1,740 apiece. Andrew Miller, one of the owners of the Millstream Stud, said today that the French stallion had proved a profitable investment. His original cost was $65,000, not $80,000, as has been frequently stated. The stud service fees derived from Adam while standing in this country amounted to $27,000 and two of his foals were sold for $9,000 recently. There are a number of mares in foal to him still at the farm, besides some weanlings. "While there might be a slump in thoroughed values in this country, there was none in France," said Mr. Miller, "and good American stock will find a ready sale there."

FEATURES OF THE HOUSTON MEETING.

A Texas race meeting of some importance is the twelve-day meeting that is announced by the Houston Jockey Club. It is to begin November 9 and continue until November 21, and in that time purses to the aggregate of $30.000 will be distributed, a very good showing for winter racing. The program is one that affords an excellent opportunity for that class of horses that campaign throughout the winter months, and the meeting can hardly fail to succeed. Purses of $200 and $250 are offered, and each day there will be a special feature, the lowest prize in any of which is $400. The star race of the meeting is the Hoo Hoo Purse, which has a value of $999.99. It is a six-furlong dash for all ages, and the purse is subscribed by the Hoo Hoos of Houston. The Hoo Hoos are lumbermen, who have a very wealthy and extensive organization throughout the lumber world, and in Houston the order is particularly strong.

The Elks' Purse of $600 is another of the features. It is another of the $600 prizes offered. The $500 races are the Tremont Hotel Handicap, Houston Electric Co. Handicap, Magnolia Brewing Co. Selling Stakes, American Brewery Handicap, Queen's Purse and the Rice Hotel Purse, while the other special features each have a value of $400.

WINS GREAT RACE WITH THREE SISTERS.

At Kempton Park, England, October 9, the rich Imperial Produce Plate was won by Sir Daniel Cooper's brown filly, Vivid, by St. Frusuuin-Glare, Vivid is a full sister to Lesbia, which divided the same event last year with Vamose, and also to Flair, which won it in 1906. In winning such a race in three successive years with full sisters of his own breeding Sir Daniel gained a distinction rare in the history of breeding and racing.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Tommy Knight, who twinkled as a star jockey when he rode for Rome Respess, is now a valet for jockey Musgrave.

Joekey Musgrave.

Joe McLennan is at Latonia in the interests of the Cuban Racing Association. He said he was meeting with a great deal of success and that he would secure 150 horses from Latonia for Havana.

Simon Healey, formerly foreman for Herman B. Duryea, has leased the running qualities of several yearlings from Mr. Duryea. The yearlings are by the promising sire, Irish Lad, and have shown good trials.

Los Angeleno, winner of the Thornton Stakes of 1907, and holder of the American record for four miles in a race, is such a confirmed cripple that H. G. Bedwell, his owner, has decided upon the immediate retirement of the horse.

T. H. Ryan's Downpatrick, which went wrong in his underpinning in his only start at Seattle, will be but in training for the winter season at Oakland. At present he looks big and high in flesh and it will be some time before he will be in condition to race. A report is current at Louisville that Ed Alvey has purchased the unbeaten two-year-old, Jeff Bernstein. It is noteworthy that the two chief two-year-old developments of the late season, Jeff Bern-stein and Friend Harry, are both sons of Orlando and that Friend Harry is a half-brother to the American Derby winner, Pink Coat.

John Hynes, who has trained the Newcastle Stable horses since the departure of Thomas Welsh for Europe, is of the opinion that Wise Mason, a half-brother to McChesney and First Mason, will make a geat long-distance racer. Wise Mason is a young-ster of fair size and stoutly built, and though not a quick breaker is a game and hardy runner.

William McKinney, one of the most successful ster of fair size and stoutly built, and though not a quick breaker is a game and hardy runner.

William McKinney, one of the most successful steeplechase lockeys of the current senson, will not, after all, go to France to ride for the Hitchcock stable. The lockey concluded that the handicap of not knowing the language of the country would be too great to enable him to make his way in France as a free lance, and as he and Mr. Hitchcock were unable to come to satisfactory terms he decided to stay at home.

The horses now stabled at Oakland are being worked daily and the progress made has been quite satisfactory to all concerned. Mike Daly's Nebulosus worked a half in 19½ the other day, the fastest bit of work so far shown at the track. Uncle was sent three-eighths in 40, while Phalanx and Roalta ran halves in 52 and 51 respectively. Captain John recled off three-clighths in 37 flat. Tawasentha went a full three-quarters in 1:21, easing up. The Mist three-eighths in 41; Eurning Bush three-eighths in 37§ and Voorhees three-eighths in 41½ were several other work-outs reported.

KENTUCKY'S Greatest Dispersal Sale

Col. Milton Young's McGrathiana Stud

at Lexington, Ky, on October 27, 28 and 29, 1908

481 Head of Thoroughbreds,

STALLIONS, MARES AND WEANLINGS

Sale will be at the McGrathiana Farm, mornings and afternoons, under a tent.

BIG KENTUCKY BARBECUE EACH DAY

THE McGRATHIANA STUD includes many more brood mares by the GREAT HANOVER and more representatives of the RENOWNED LEVITY family than any other breeding establishment in the United States.

Hanover mares are the dams of Dick Welles, Ort Wells, Tanya, Toluca, Whorler, Arsenal, Armenia, Brush Up, Tongorder, Brunswick, Little Scout, Orby (English Derby of 1907), Nealon, Sewell, W. H. Daniel, Oran, First Water, Possession, Rhodora (1,600 Cuincas in 1908, etc.), Sir Martin (the largest winner of 1908), Burdette, Cursus, Hippocrates, Oraculum, Little Boy, Brooklynite, For Luck, Mollie Montrose, Carew, John Lyle, Schuyler, Sandria, Westbury, Perseus, Preceptor, Adesso, Ironsides and a score of others of less note.

Owing to general business. Owing to general business depression in Kentucky this stock will go at sacrifice prices and no breeders looking to the future can afford to miss such an opportunity for strengthening their studs.
